Step into this beautiful stone home and you're greeted by an open floor plan and high ceilings, providing an instant sense of spaciousness and tranquility.

This stunning one bedroom, two bathroom home is spread over two floors and is located on a property with picturesque views of the countryside, a swimming pool, a large yard and forest.

When you enter the living room on the ground floor, you will be greeted by natural light that pours in through the large windows, illuminating the room and highlighting the beautiful designer stone house. The hanging fireplace provides a cozy ambiance, perfect for cold winter nights.

The kitchen has a kitchen island, perfect for entertaining guests. The guest bathroom is also conveniently located on the ground floor for easy access.

As you reach the first floor, you will be greeted by the primary bedroom with its own bathroom. The bedroom has enough space for a king-size bed and additional furniture, while the bathroom provides privacy and luxury for a relaxing bath after a long day.

The outside of the property has a front yard with a well-manicured lawn and an outdoor kitchen.
